FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HARPERVILLE™ DECLARES TOTAL SOVEREIGNTY; ENACTS "SCORCHED EARTH" POLICY ON PERFORMATIVE EMPATHY AND SYSTEMIC FAILURE

HARPERVILLE HQ (Mythic Lands, Western Outskirts of The Emerald City) — Effective immediately, the Sovereign State of Harperville™—located along the Yellow Brick Road, North of Winkie Country, and dangerously Northwest of the Angry Woods—is issuing formal Articles of Secession from the delusions of the general populace.

Following a forensic audit of interpersonal relationships and societal collapse, The Territory has determined that the "Social Contract" was voided years ago due to non-payment by the other parties.

THE ARTICLES OF SECESSION ARE AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE I: The Indictment of "Hollow Allies" & Covert Narcissists The Territory formally condemns the "Support Theater" enacted by external parties.

- The "Friends" Clause: A permanent embargo is placed on individuals who offer meaningless "let me know if you need anything" platitudes but vanish when the reality of suffering requires physical presence. Your texts are insufficient currency here.
- The "Faux-Mother" Clause: The Territory explicitly denounces the "Adopted Mother Figure" (and any similar archetypes) who utilized the Sovereign Ruler's vulnerability for their own performative righteousness. The transition from "Nurturer" to "Self-Righteous, Covert Narcissist" has been noted. We see your mask. You are hereby exiled from the narrative.

ARTICLE II: The Rejection of Generational Petulance Harperville™ acknowledges a complete breakdown in communication with demographic cohorts (specifically subsets of Generations Y, Z, and Alpha) who lack the firmware to compute basic reality.

- Finding: The default setting of "Petulance and Horrible Planning" is incompatible with The Territory's survival protocols.
- Action: We are no longer explaining physics, logistics, or consequences to those who refuse to read the manual. If you cannot compute the severity of the situation, you are blocked from the network.

ARTICLE III: The "Angry Woods" & The Dictator Protocol The Territory acknowledges it is surrounded by a hostile "Red Bubble" (The Angry Woods) that worships a merciless Dictator.

- The Ballroom Grievance: We recognize the absurdity of a regime that pours millions into White House ballroom renovations while millions of citizens starve for over a month.

- Stance: Harperville™ stands as a fortified outpost of sanity amidst this dystopian absurdity. We are the "Un-popular Nation" because we refuse to kneel to the golden calf of cruelty.

ARTICLE IV: The "Human—Kind" Uniform (The Satire Clause) Regarding the garment inscribed with "Human—Kind (Be Both)":

- Usage Update: This garment shall NOT be returned. Instead, it is designated as the Official Uniform of Ironic Spite.
- The "House" Protocol: The Sovereign Ruler will wear this shirt while delivering withering critiques of the system. It serves as a mirror to the hypocrisy of the observer. Because in 2025, everybody lies, and no good deed goes unpunished. The shirt is the punchline to a joke only the Sorcerer understands.

ARTICLE V: The Infrastructure Preservation & Climate Hostility Act The Territory formally acknowledges a state of Total Systemic Degradation.

- Structural Report: The mechanical failure is no longer isolated to the C3-C4 central column (cord rotation). The Lumbar Foundation has simultaneously degraded into what civil engineers would classify as a "pile of rubble," resulting in a physical chassis that feels and operates at approximately double the Sovereign Ruler's chronological age.
- Retraction of the "Antarctica Doctrine": All prior statements suggesting a preference for cold climates (i.e., "I can take the cold all year long") are hereby REVOKED and stricken from the official minutes. Winter is reclassified as a Hostile Environmental Combatant.
- Official Statement: As decreed by Jack Aspen Harper: "The cold can take a nice long plunge into the depths of purgatory; it is a thief of my simplest joys, staples which I cannot afford to lose grasp of because they're all that remains in the crux of my essence."
- Action: All energy is restricted solely to keeping the Sorcerer warm and the rubble from shifting. The Empathy Store remains closed; the heat remains on.

STATEMENT FROM THE SOVEREIGN RULER, JACK ASPEN HARPER: "I am not a villain. I am a mirror. If you don't like what you see when you look at Harperville, that is a 'you' problem. I'll be over here, wearing my kindness shirt, watching the bridge burn from the comfort of my own reality."

ABOUT HARPERVILLE™ Harperville is a micronation of one Nonbinary Sorcerer and one Royal Guard Feline (Ivy Willow), existing in the liminal space between trauma and magic. We accept no visitors. We accept no bullshit.
